CHAPTER 1

And Josiah held the feast of the passover in Jerusalem unto his Lord, and offered the passover the fourteenth day of the first month; ²having set the priests according to their daily courses, being arrayed in long garments, in the temple of the Lord. ³And he spake unto the Levites, the holy ministers of Israel, that they should hallow themselves unto the Lord, to set the holy ark of the Lord in the house that king Solomon the son of David had built: ⁴*and said*, Ye shall no more bear the ark upon your shoulders: now therefore serve the Lord your God, and minister unto His people Israel, and prepare you after your families and kindreds, according as David the king of Israel prescribed, and according to the magnificence of Solomon his son. ⁵And standing in the temple according to the several dignity of the families of you the Levites, who minister in the presence of your brethren the sons of Israel, ⁶offer the passover in order, and make ready the sacrifices for your brethren, and keep the passover according to the commandment of the Lord, which was given unto Moses. ⁷And unto the people that was found there Josiah gave thirty thousand lambs and kids, and three thousand calves: these things were given of the king's allowance, according as he promised, to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. ⁸And Hilkiah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, the governors of the temple, gave to the priests for the passover two thousand and six hundred sheep, and three hundred calves. ⁹And Jechoniah, and Shemaiah, and Nathanael his brother, and Hashabiah, and Ochiel, and Joram, captains over thousands, gave to the Levites for the passover five thousand sheep, and seven hundred calves. ¹⁰And when these things were done, the priests and the Levites, having the unleavened bread, stood in very comely order according to the kindreds, and according to the several dignities of the fathers, before the people, to offer to the Lord, as it is written in the book of Moses: and thus did they in the morning. ¹¹And they roasted the passover with fire, as appertaineth: as for the sacrifices, they sod them in brass pots and pans with a good savour, and set them before all the people. ¹²And after these things they prepared for themselves, and for the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron: ¹³for the priests offered the fat until night, and the Levites prepared for themselves, and the priests their brethren, the sons of Aaron. ¹⁴The holy singers also, the sons of Asaph, were in their order, according to the appointment of David, to wit, Asaph, Zechariah, and Eddinus, who was of the king's retinue. ¹⁵Moreover the porters were at every gate; it was not lawful for any to go from his ordinary service: for their brethren the Levites prepared for them. ¹⁶Thus were the things that belonged to the sacrifices of the Lord accomplished in that day, that they might hold the passover, and offer sacrifices upon the altar of the Lord, according to the commandment of king Josiah. ¹⁷So the sons of Israel which were present held the passover at that time, and the feast of sweet bread seven days.

¹⁸And such a passover was not kept in Israel since the time of the prophet Samuel. ¹⁹Yea, all the kings of Israel held not such a passover as Josiah, and the priests, and the Levites, and the Jews, held with all Israel that were found dwelling at Jerusalem. ²⁰In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover kept. ²¹And the works of Josiah were upright before his Lord with an heart full of godliness. ²²As for the things that came to pass in his time, they were written in former times, concerning those that sinned, and did wickedly against the Lord above all people and kingdoms, and how they grieved Him exceedingly, so that the words of the Lord rose up against Israel.

²³Now after all these acts of Josiah it came to pass, that Pharaoh the king of Egypt came to raise war at Carchemish upon the Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. ²⁴But the king of Egypt sent to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, O king of the Judeans? ²⁵I am not sent out from the Lord God against thee; for my war is upon the Euphrates: and now the Lord is with me; yea, the Lord is with me hasting me forward: depart from me, and be not against the Lord. ²⁶Howbeit Josiah did not turn back his chariot from him, but undertook to fight with him, not regarding the words of the prophet Jeremiah spoken by the mouth of the Lord: ²⁷but joined battle with him in the plain of Megiddo, and the princes came against king Josiah. ²⁸Then said the king unto his servants, Carry me away out of the battle; for I am very weak. And immediately his servants took him away out of the battle. ²⁹Then gat he upon his second chariot; and being brought back to Jerusalem died, and was buried in his father's sepulchre. ³⁰And in all Judah they mourned for Josiah, yea, Jeremiah the prophet lamented for Josiah, and the chief men with the women made lamentation for him unto this day: and this was given out for an ordinance to be done continually in all the nation of Israel. ³¹These things are written in the book of the stories of the kings of the Judeans, and every one of the acts that Josiah did, and his glory, and his understanding in the law of the Lord, and the things that he had done before, and the things now recited, are reported in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

³²And the people took Jechoniah the son of Josiah, and made him king instead of Josiah his father, when he was twenty and three years old. ³³And he reigned in Israel and Jerusalem three months. And then the king of Egypt deposed him from reigning in Jerusalem: ³⁴and he set a tax upon the land of an hundred talents of silver and one talent of gold. ³⁵The king of Egypt also made king Jehoiakim his brother king of the Judeans and Jerusalem. ³⁶And he bound Jehoiakim and the nobles: but Zarius his brother he apprehended, and brought him out of Egypt.

³⁷Five and twenty years old was Jehoiakim when he was made king in the land of Judah and Jerusalem; and he did evil before the Lord. ³⁸Wherefore against him Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon came up, and bound him with a chain of brass, and carried him unto Babylon. ³⁹Nebuchadnezzar also took of the holy vessels of the Lord, and carried them away, and set them in his own temple at Babylon. ⁴⁰But those things that are recorded of him, and his uncleanness and impiety, are written in the chronicles of the kings.

⁴¹And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead: he was made king being eighteen years old. ⁴²And he reigned but three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and did evil before the Lord.

⁴³So after a year Nebuchadnezzar sent and caused him to be brought into Babylon with the holy vessels of the Lord; ⁴⁴and made Zedekiah king of the Judeans and Jerusalem, when he was one and twenty years old; and he reigned eleven years; ⁴⁵and he did evil also in the sight of the Lord, and cared not for the words that were spoken unto him by the prophet Jeremiah from the mouth of the Lord. ⁴⁶And after that king Nebuchadnezzar had made him to swear by the name of the Lord, he forswore himself, and rebelled; and hardening his neck, and his heart, he transgressed the laws of the Lord God of Israel. ⁴⁷The governors also of the people and of the priests did many things against the laws, and passed all the pollutions of all nations, and defiled the temple of the Lord, which was sanctified in Jerusalem. ⁴⁸And the God of their fathers sent by His messenger to call them back, because He spared them and His tabernacle also. ⁴⁹But they had His messengers in derision; and, look, when the Lord spake unto them, they made a sport of His prophets: so far forth, that He, being wroth with His people for their great ungodliness, commanded the kings of the Chaldeans to come up against them: ⁵⁰who slew their young men with the sword, yea, even within the compass of their holy temple, and spared neither young man nor maid, old man nor child, among them; for He delivered all into their hands. ⁵¹And they took all the holy vessels of the Lord, both great and small, with the vessels of the ark of God, and the king's treasures, and carried them away into Babylon. ⁵²As for the house of the Lord, they burnt it, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem, and set fire upon her towers: ⁵³and as for all her glorious things, they never ceased till they had consumed and brought them to nought: and the people that were not slain with the sword he carried into Babylon. ⁵⁴And they became servants to him, and to his children, till the Persians reigned, to fulfil the word of the Lord spoken by the mouth of Jeremiah: ⁵⁵Until the land had enjoyed her sabbaths, the whole time of her desolation shall she rest, until the full term of seventy years.

CHAPTER 2

In the first year of Cyrus king of the Persians, that the word of the Lord might be accomplished, that He had promised by the mouth of Jeremiah; ²the Lord raised up the spirit of Cyrus the king of the Persians, and he made proclamation through all his kingdom, and also by writing, saying, ³Thus saith Cyrus king of the Persians; The Lord of Israel, the Most high Lord, hath made me king of the whole world. ⁴And He hath commanded me to build Him an house at Jerusalem in Judea. ⁵If therefore there be any of you that are of His people, let the Lord, even his Lord, be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem that is in Judea, and build the house of the Lord of Israel: (for He is the Lord that dwelleth in Jerusalem). ⁶Whosoever then dwell in the places round about, let them help him, (those, I say, that are his neighbours,) with gold, and with silver, with gifts, with horses, and with cattle, and other things, which have been set forth by vow, for the temple of the Lord at Jerusalem. ⁷Then the chief of the families of Judah and of the tribe of Benjamin stood up; the priests also, and the Levites, and all they whose mind the Lord had moved to go up, and to build an house for the Lord at Jerusalem, ⁸and they that dwelt round about them, and helped them in all things with silver and gold, with horses and cattle, and with very many free gifts of great number whose minds were stirred up thereto. ⁹King Cyrus also brought forth the holy vessels, which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem, and had set up in his temple of idols. ¹⁰Now when Cyrus king of the Persians had brought them forth, he delivered them to Mithridates his treasurer: ¹¹and by him they were delivered to Sheshbazzar the governor of Judah. ¹²And this was the number of them; A thousand golden cups, and a thousand of silver, censers of silver twenty nine, vials of gold thirty, and of silver two thousand four hundred and ten, and a thousand other vessels. ¹³So all the vessels of gold and of silver, which were carried away, were five thousand four hundred threescore and nine. ¹⁴These were brought back by Sheshbazzar, together with them of the captivity, from Babylon to Jerusalem.

¹⁵But in the time of Artaxerxes king of the Persians, Bishlam, and Mithridates, and Tabeel, and Rehum, Beltethmus, and Shimshai the secretary, with the rest that were in commission with them, dwelling in Samaria and other places, wrote unto him against them that dwelt in Judea and Jerusalem this letter following; ¹⁶To king Artaxerxes our lord, Thy servants Rehum the storywriter, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their council, and the judges that are in Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ¹⁷Be it now known to the lord the king, that the Jews that are come up from you to us, being come into Jerusalem, (that rebellious and wicked city,) do build the marketplaces, and repair the walls of it, and do lay the foundations of the temple. ¹⁸Now if this city and the walls thereof be made up again, they will not only refuse to give tribute, but also rebel against kings. And forasmuch as the things pertaining to the temple are now in hand, we think it meet not to neglect such a matter, but to speak unto our lord the king, to the intent that, if it be thy pleasure, it may be sought out in the books of thy fathers: ¹⁹and thou shalt find in the chronicles what is written concerning these things, and shalt understand that the city was rebellious, troubling both kings and cities: and that the Jews were rebellious, and raised always wars therein; for the which cause even this city was made desolate. ²⁰Wherefore now we do declare unto thee, O lord the king, that if this city be built again, and the walls thereof set up anew, thou shalt from henceforth have no passage into Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ²¹Then the king wrote back again to Rehum the storywriter, to Beltethmus, to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest that were in commission, and dwellers in Samaria and Syria and Phoenicia, after this manner: ²²I have read the epistle which ye have sent unto me:

therefore I commanded to make diligent search, and it hath been found that the city was from the beginning practising against kings; ²³and the men therein were given to rebellion and war: and that mighty kings and fierce were in Jerusalem, who reigned and exacted tributes in Coelesyria and Phoenicia. ²⁴Now therefore I have commanded to hinder those men from building the city, and heed to be taken that there be no more done in it; and that those wicked workers proceed no further to the annoyance of kings. ²⁵Then king Artaxerxes his letters being read, Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest that were in commission with them, removing in haste toward Jerusalem with a troop of horsemen and a multitude of people in battle array, began to hinder the builders; and the building of the temple in Jerusalem ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of the Persians.

Now when Darius the king reigned, he made a great feast unto all his subjects, and unto all his household, and unto all the princes of Media and Persia, ²and to all the governors and captains and lieutenants that were under him, from India unto Ethiopia, in the hundred twenty and seven provinces. ³And when they had eaten and drunken, and being satisfied were gone home, then Darius the king went into his bedchamber, and slept, and soon after awaked. ⁴Then three young men, that were of the guard that kept the king's body, spake one to another; ⁵Let every one of us speak a sentence: he that shall overcome, and whose sentence shall seem wiser than the others, unto him shall the king Darius give great gifts, and great things in token of victory, ⁶as to be clothed in purple, to drink in gold, and to sleep upon gold, and a chariot with a bridle of gold, and an headtire of fine linen, and a chain about his neck: ⁷and he shall sit next to Darius because of his wisdom, and shall be called Darius his cousin. ⁸And then every one wrote his sentence, sealed it, and laid it under king Darius his pillow; and said, ⁹When the king is risen, some will give him the writings; and of whose side the king and the three princes of Persia shall judge that his sentence is the wisest, to him shall victory be given, as was appointed. ¹⁰The first wrote, Wine is the strongest. ¹¹The second wrote, The king is strongest. ¹²The third wrote, Women are strongest: but above all things Truth beareth away the victory. ¹³Now when the king was risen up, they took their writings, and delivered them unto him, and so he read them: ¹⁴and sending forth he called all the princes of Persia and Media, and the governors, and the captains, and the lieutenants, and the chief officers; and sat him down in the royal seat of judgment; and the writings were read before them. ¹⁵And he said, Call the young men, and they shall declare their own sentences: so they were called, and came in. ¹⁶And he said unto them, Declare unto us your mind concerning the writings.

¹⁷Then began the first, who had spoken of the strength of wine; and he said thus, O ye men, how exceeding strong is wine! it causeth all men to err that drink it: ¹⁸it maketh the mind of the king and of the fatherless child to be all one; of the bondman and of the freeman, of the poor man and of the rich: ¹⁹it turneth also every thought into jollity and mirth, so that a man remembereth neither sorrow nor debt: ²⁰and it maketh every heart rich, so that a man remembereth neither king nor governor; and it maketh to speak all things by talents. ²¹And when they are in their cups, they forget their love both to friends and brethren, and a little after draw out swords: ²²but when they are far from the wine, they remember not what they have done. ²³O ye men, is not wine the strongest, that enforceth to do thus? And when he had so spoken, he held his peace.

Then the second, that had spoken of the strength of the king, began to say, ²⁴O ye men, do not men excel in strength, that bear rule over sea and land, and all things in them? ²⁵But yet the king is most mighty: for he is the lord of all these things, and hath dominion over them; and whatsoever he commandeth them they do. ²⁶If he bid them make war the one against the other, they do it: if he send them out against the enemies, they go, and break down mountains, walls, and towers. ²⁷They slay and are slain, and transgress not the king's commandment: if they get the victory, they bring all to the king, as well the spoil, as all things else. ²⁸Likewise for those that are no soldiers, and have not to do with wars, but use husbandry, when they have reaped again that which they had sown, they bring it to the king, and compel one another to pay tribute unto the king. ²⁹And yet he is but one man: if he command to kill, they kill; if he command to spare, they spare; ³⁰if he command to smite, they smite; if he command to make desolate, they make desolate; if he command to build, they build; ³¹if he command to cut down, they cut down; if he command to plant, they plant. ³²So all his people and his armies obey him: furthermore he lieth down, he eateth and drinketh, and taketh his rest: ³³and these keep watch round about him, neither may any one depart, and do his own business, neither disobey they him in any thing. ³⁴O ye men, how should not the king be mightiest, when in such sort he is obeyed? And he held his tongue.

³⁵Then the third, who had spoken of women, and of the truth, (this was Zerrubabel) began to speak. O ye men, ³⁶it is not the great king, nor the multitude of men, neither is it wine, that excelleth; who is it them that ruleth them, or hath the lordship over them? are they not women? ³⁷Women have borne the king and all the people that bear rule by sea and land. ³⁸Even of them came they: and they nourished them up that planted the vineyards, from whence the wine cometh. ³⁹These also make garments for men; these bring glory unto men; and without women cannot men be. ⁴⁰Yea, and if men have gathered together gold and silver, or any other goodly thing, do they not love a woman which is comely in favour and beauty? ⁴¹And letting all those things go, do not they gape, and even with open mouth fix their eyes fast on her; and have not all men more desire unto her than unto silver or gold, or any goodly thing whatsoever? ²⁰A man leaveth his own father that brought him up, and his own country, and cleaveth unto his wife. ²¹He sticketh not to spend his life with his wife, and remembereth neither father, nor mother, nor country. ²²By this also ye must know that women have dominion over you: do ye not labour and toil, and give and bring all to the woman? ²³Yea, a man taketh his sword, and goeth his way to rob and to steal, to sail upon the sea and upon rivers; ²⁴and looketh upon a lion, and goeth in the darkness; and when he hath stolen, spoiled, and robbed, he bringeth it to his love. ²⁵Wherefore a man loveth his wife better than father or mother. ²⁶Yea, many there be that have run out of their wits for women, and become servants for their sakes. ²⁷Many also have perished, have erred, and sinned, for women. ²⁸And now do ye not believe me? is not the king great in his power? do not all regions fear to touch him? ²⁹Yet did I see him and Apame the king's concubine, the daughter of the admirable Bartacus, sitting at the right hand of the king, ³⁰and taking the crown from the king's head, and setting it upon her own head; she also struck the king with her left hand. ³¹And yet for all this the king gaped and gazed upon her with open mouth: if she laughed upon him, he laughed also: but if she took any displeasure at him, the king was fain to flatter, that she might be reconciled to him again. ³²O ye men, how can it be but women should be strong, seeing they do thus? ³³Then the king and the princes looked one upon another: so he began to speak of the truth. ³⁴O ye men, are not women strong? great is the earth, high is the heaven, swift is the sun in his course, for he compasseth the heavens round about, and fetcheth his course again to his own place in one day. ³⁵Is he not great that maketh these things? therefore great is the truth, and stronger than all things. ³⁶All the earth calleth upon the truth, and the heaven blesseth it: all works shake and tremble at it, and with it is no unrighteous thing. ³⁷Wine is wicked, the king is wicked, women are wicked, all the children of men are wicked; and such are all their wicked works, and there is no truth in them: in their unrighteousness also they shall perish. ³⁸As for the truth, it endureth, and is always strong; it liveth and conquereth for evermore. ³⁹With her there is no accepting of persons or rewards; but she doeth the things that are just, and refraineth from all unjust and wicked things; and all men do well like of her works: neither in her judgment is any unrighteousness. ⁴⁰And she is the strength, kingdom, power, and majesty, of all ages. Blessed be the God of truth. ⁴¹And with that he held his peace. And all the people then shouted, and said, Great is Truth, and mighty above all things.

⁴²Then said the king unto him, Ask what thou wilt more than is appointed in the writing, and we will give it thee, because thou art found wisest; and thou shalt sit next me, and shalt be called my cousin. ⁴³Then said he unto the king, Remember thy vow, which thou hast vowed to build Jerusalem, in the day when thou camest to thy kingdom, ⁴⁴and to send away all the vessels that were taken away out of Jerusalem, which Cyrus set apart, when he vowed to destroy Babylon, and to send them again thither. ⁴⁵Thou hast also vowed to build up the temple, which the Edomites burned when

Judea was made desolate by the Chaldeans. ⁴⁶And now, O lord the king, this is that which I require, and which I desire of thee, and this is the princely liberality proceeding from thyself: I desire therefore that thou make good the vow, the performance whereof with thine own mouth thou hast vowed to the king of heaven. ⁴⁷Then Darius stood up, and kissed him, and wrote letters for him unto all the treasurers and lieutenants and captains and governors, that they should safely convey on their way both him, and all those that go up with him to build Jerusalem. ⁴⁸He wrote letters also unto the lieutenants that were in Coelesyria and Phoenicia, and unto them in Lebanon, that they should bring cedar wood from Lebanon unto Jerusalem, and that they should build the city with him. ⁴⁹Moreover he wrote for all the Jews that went up out of his realm up into Judea, concerning their freedom, that no officer, no ruler, no lieutenant, nor treasurer, should forcibly enter into their doors; ⁵⁰and that all the country which they hold should be free without tribute; and that the Edomites should give over the villages of the Jews which then they held: ⁵¹yea, that there should be yearly given twenty talents to the building of the temple, until the time that it were built, and other ten talents yearly, ⁵²to maintain the burnt offerings upon the altar every day, (as they had a commandment to offer seventeen:) ⁵³and that all they that went from Babylon to build the city should have free liberty, as well they as their posterity, and all the priests that went away. ⁵⁴He wrote also concerning the charges, and the priests' vestments wherein they minister; ⁵⁵and likewise for the charges of the Levites, to be given them until the day that the house were finished, and Jerusalem builded up. ⁵⁶And he commanded to give to all that kept the city pensions and wages. ⁵⁷He sent away also all the vessels from Babylon, that Cyrus had set apart; and all that Cyrus had given in commandment, the same charged he also to be done, and sent unto Jerusalem.

⁵⁸Now when this young man was gone forth, he lifted up his face to heaven toward Jerusalem, and praised the king of heaven, and said, ⁵⁹From Thee cometh victory, from Thee cometh wisdom, and Thine is the glory, and I am Thy servant. ⁶⁰Blessed art Thou, who hast given me wisdom: and to Thee I give thanks, O Lord of our fathers. ⁶¹And so he took the letters, and went out, and came unto Babylon, and told it all his brethren. ⁶²And they praised the God of their fathers, because He had given them freedom and liberty ⁶³to go up, and to build Jerusalem, and the temple which is called by His name. And they feasted with instruments of musick and gladness seven days.

CHAPTER 5

After this were the principal men of the families chosen according to their tribes, to go up with their wives and sons and daughters, with their menservants and maidservants, and their cattle. ²And Darius sent with them a thousand horsemen, till they had brought them back to Jerusalem safely, and with musical instruments, tabrets and flutes. ³And all their brethren played, and he made them go up together with them.

⁴And these are the names of the men which went up, according to their families among their tribes, after their several heads. ⁵The priests, the sons of Phinehas the son of Aaron: Jeshua the son of Jozadak, the son of Seraiah, and Joakim the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel of the house of David, out of the kindred of Phares of the tribe of Judah; ⁶who spake wise sentences before Darius the king of Persia in the second year of his reign, in the month Nisan, which is the first month. ⁷And these are they of Judah that came up from the captivity, where they dwelt as strangers, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon. ⁸And they returned unto Jerusalem, and to the other parts of Judea, every man to his own city, who came with Zerubbabel, with Jeshua, Nehemiah, and Zariah, and Resaiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Aspharasu, Elijah, Roimah, and Baanah, their guides. ⁹The number of them of the nation, and their governors, sons of Parosh, two thousand an hundred seventy and two; the sons of Shephatiah, four hundred seventy and two: ¹⁰the sons of Arah, seven hundred fifty and six: ¹¹the sons of Phahath-Moab, among the sons of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve. ¹²The sons of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and four: the sons of Zattu, nine hundred seventy and five: the sons of Chorbe, seven hundred and five: the sons of Bani, six hundred forty and eight. ¹³The sons of Bebai, six hundred thirty and three: the sons of Azgad, one thousand three hundred twenty and two. ¹⁴The sons of Adonikam, six hundred thirty and seven: the sons of Bigvai, two thousand six hundred and six: the sons of Adin, four hundred fifty and four. ¹⁵The sons of Ater, the son of Hezekiah, ninety and two: the sons of Kilan and Azetus, threescore and seven: the sons of Azaru, four hundred thirty and two. ¹⁶The sons of Annias, an hundred and one: the sons of Arom, thirty two: the sons of Bezai, three hundred twenty and three: the sons of Hariph, an hundred and two. ¹⁷The sons of Baiterus, three thousand and five: the sons of Bethlomon, an hundred twenty and three. ¹⁸They of Netophah, fifty and five: they of Ananath, an hundred fifty and eight: they of Beth-Azmaveth, forty and two. ¹⁹They of Kirjath-jearim, twenty and five: they of Chephirah and Beeroth, seven hundred forty and three. ²⁰They of Chadias and Ammidias, four hundred twenty and two: they of Kirama and Geba, six hundred twenty and one. ²¹They of Macalon, an hundred twenty and two: they of Betolio, fifty and two: the sons of Nephish, an hundred fifty and six. ²²The sons of Calamolalus and Ono, seven hundred twenty and five: the sons of Jerechus, two hundred forty and five. ²³The sons of Senaah, three thousand three hundred and one. ²⁴The priests: the sons of Jedaiah, the son of Jeshua, among the sons of Anasib, eight hundred seventy and two: the sons of Immer, two hundred fifty and two. ²⁵The sons of Pashur, a thousand forty and seven: the sons of Charme, two hundred and seventeen. ²⁶The Levites: the sons of Joshua, and Kadmiel, and Bannas, and Sudias, seventy and four. ²⁷The holy singers: the sons of Asaph, an hundred twenty and eight. ²⁸The porters: the sons of Shallum, the sons of Atar, the sons of Talmon, the sons of Akkub, the sons of Hatita, the sons of Shobai, in all an hundred thirty and nine. ²⁹The servants of the temple: the sons of Esau, the sons of Hasupha, the sons of Tabbaoth, the sons of Keros, the sons of Sua, the sons of Padon, the sons of Lebanah, the sons of Hagabah. ³⁰The sons of Akkub, the sons of Uthai, the sons of Ketab, the sons of Hagab, the sons of Subai, the sons of Hana, the sons of Cathua, the sons of Geddur. ³¹The sons of Jairus, the sons of Daisan, the sons of Noeba, the sons of Chezib, the sons of Gazera, the sons of Uzza, the sons of Phinoe, the sons of Hasrah, the sons of Basthai, the sons of Asnah, the sons of Maani, the sons of Nephisim, the sons of Acuph, the sons of Hakupha, the sons of Asur, the sons of Pharakim, the sons of Bazluth, ³²the sons of Mehida, the sons of Cutha, the sons of Charea, the sons of Barkos, the sons of Serar, the sons of Temah, the sons of Neziah, the sons of Hatipha. ³³The sons of the servants of Solomon: the sons of Assaphioth, the sons of Peruda, the sons of Jaalah, the sons of Lozon, the sons of Isdael, the sons of Shephatiah. ³⁴The sons of Agia, the sons of Pochereth, the sons of Sabi, the sons of Sarothie, the sons of Masaiah, the sons of Gas, the sons of Addus, the sons of Subas, the sons of Apherra, the sons of Barodis, the sons of Shaphat, the sons of Allon. ³⁵All the ministers of the temple, and the sons of the servants of Solomon, were three hundred seventy and two. ³⁶These came up from Thermeleth, and Thelersas, Charaath leading them, and Amar: ³⁷they could not shew their families or their stock, how they were of Israel: the sons of Delaah, the son of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two. ³⁸And of the priests that usurped the office, and were not found: the sons of Habadiah, the sons of Hakkoz, the sons of Jaddus, who married Agia one of the daughters of Barzillai, and was named after his name. ³⁹And when the description of the kindred of these men was sought in the register, and was not found, they were removed from executing the office of the priesthood: ⁴⁰for unto them said Nehemiah and Attharias, that they should not be partakers of the holy things, till there rose up an high priest clothed with doctrine and truth. ⁴¹So of Israel, from them of twelve years old and upward, besides menservants and womenservants, they were all in number forty thousand two thousand three hundred and sixty: their menservants and handmaids were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: the singing men and singing women, two hundred forty and five: ⁴²four hundred thirty and five camels, seven thousand thirty and six horses, two hundred forty and five mules, five thousand five hundred twenty and five beasts used to the yoke. ⁴³And certain of the chief of their families, when they came to the temple of God that is in Jerusalem, vowed to set up the house again in his own place according to their ability, ⁴⁴and to give into the holy treasury of the works a thousand pounds of gold, five thousand of silver, and an hundred priestly vestments. ⁴⁵And so dwelt the priests and the Levites and the people in Jerusalem, and in the country, the singers also and the porters; and all Israel in their villages.

⁴⁶But when the seventh month was at hand, and when the sons of Israel were every man in his own place, they came altogether with one consent into the open space of the first gate which is toward the east. ⁴⁷Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and made ready the altar of the God of Israel, ⁴⁸to offer burnt sacrifices upon it, according as it is expressly commanded in the book of Moses the man of God. ⁴⁹And there were gathered unto them out of the other nations of the land, and they erected the altar upon his own place, because all the nations of the land were at enmity with them, and oppressed them; and they offered sacrifices according to the time, and whole burnt offerings to the Lord both morning and evening. ⁵⁰Also they held the feast of tabernacles, as it is commanded in the law, and offered sacrifices daily, as was meet: ⁵¹and after that, the continual oblations, and the sacrifice of the sabbaths, and of the new moons, and of all holy feasts. ⁵²And all they that had made any vow to God began to offer sacrifices to God from the first day of the seventh month, although the temple of the Lord was not yet built. ⁵³And they gave unto the masons and carpenters money, meat, and drink, with cheerfulness: unto them of Sidon also and Tyre they gave carrs, that they should bring cedar trees from Lebanon, which should be brought by floats to the haven of Joppa, according as it was commanded them by Cyrus king of the Persians. ⁵⁴And in the second year and second month after his coming to the temple of God at Jerusalem began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and their brethren, and the priests, and the Levites, and all they that were come unto Jerusalem out of the captivity: ⁵⁵and they laid the foundation of the house of God in the first day of the second month, in the second year after they were come to Judea and Jerusalem. ⁵⁶And they appointed the Levites from twenty years old over the works of the Lord: then stood up Jeshua, and his sons and brethren, and Kadmiel his brother, and the sons of Emadabun, with the sons of Joda the son of Iliadun, with their sons and brethren, all Levites, with one accord setters forth of the business, labouring to advance the works in the house of the Lord. So the builders built the temple of the Lord. ⁵⁷And the priests stood arrayed in their vestments with musical instruments and trumpets; and the Levites the sons of Asaph had cymbals, singing songs of thanksgiving, and praising the Lord, according as David the king of Israel had ordained. ⁵⁸And they sung with loud voices songs to the praise of the Lord, because His mercy and glory is for ever in all Israel. ⁵⁹And all the people sounded trumpets, and shouted with a loud voice, singing songs of thanksgiving unto the Lord for the rearing up of the house of the Lord. ⁶⁰Also of the priests and Levites, and of the chief of their families, the elders who had seen the former house came to the building of this with weeping and great crying. ⁶¹But many with trumpets and joy shouted with loud voice, ⁶²insomuch that the trumpets might not be heard for the weeping of people; yet the multitude sounded marvellously, so that it was heard afar off.

⁶³Wherefore when the enemies of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin heard it, they came to know what the noise of trumpets should mean. ⁶⁴And they perceived that they that were of the captivity did build the temple unto the Lord God of Israel. ⁶⁵So they went to Zerubbabel and Jeshua, and to the chief of the families, and said unto them, We will build together with you: ⁶⁶for we likewise, as ye, do obey your Lord, and do sacrifice unto Him from the days of Esarhaddon the king of the Assyrians, who brought us hither. ⁶⁷Then Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the chief of the families of Israel said unto them,

It is not for us and you to build together an house unto the Lord our God. ⁶⁸We ourselves alone will build unto the Lord of Israel, according as Cyrus the king of the Persians hath commanded us. ⁶⁹But the nations of the land lying heavy upon the inhabitants of Judea, and holding them strait, hindered their building. ⁷⁰And by their secret plots, and popular persuasions and commotions, they hindered the finishing of the building all the time that king Cyrus lived: so that they were hindered from building for the space of two years, until the reign of Darius the king.

CHAPTER 6

Now in the second year of the reign of Darius the king, Haggai and Zechariah the son of Iddo, the prophets, prophesied unto the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the Lord God of Israel, which was upon them. ²Then stood up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, the prophets of the Lord being with them, and helping them. ³At the same time came unto them Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phenice, with Sathrabuzanes and his companions, and said unto them, ⁴By whose appointment do ye build this house and this roof, and perform all the other things? and who are the workmen that perform these things? ⁵Nevertheless the elders of the Jews obtained favour, because the Lord had visited the captivity; ⁶and they were not hindered from building, until such time as signification was given unto Darius concerning them, and an answer received.

⁷The copy of the letters which Sisinnes, governor of Syria and Phenice, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, rulers in Syria and Phenice, wrote and sent unto Darius: To king Darius, greeting. ⁸Let all things be known unto our lord the king, that being come into the country of Judah, and entered into the city of Jerusalem, we found in the city of Jerusalem the elders of the Jews that were of the captivity building an house unto the Lord, great and new, of hewen and costly stones, and the timber already laid upon the walls. ⁹And these works are done with great speed, and the work goeth on prosperously in their hands, and with all glory and diligence is it made. ¹⁰Then asked we these elders, saying, By whose commandment build ye this house, and lay the foundations of these works? ¹¹Therefore to the intent that we might give knowledge unto thee by writing, we demanded of them who were the chief doers, and we required of them the names in writing of their principal men. ¹²So they gave us this answer, saying, We are the servants of the Lord which made the heaven and the earth. ¹³And as for this house, it was builded many years ago by a king of Israel great and strong, and was finished. ¹⁴But when our fathers provoked God unto wrath, and sinned against the Lord of Israel which is in heaven, He gave them over into the power of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of the Chaldees; ¹⁵who pulled down the house, and burned it, and carried away the people captives into Babylon. ¹⁶But in the first year that king Cyrus reigned over the country of Babylon, Cyrus the king wrote to build this house. ¹⁷And the holy vessels of gold and of silver, that Nebuchadnezzar had carried away out of the house at Jerusalem, and had set them in his own temple, those Cyrus the king brought forth again out of the temple at Babylon, and they were delivered to Zerubbabel, that is to Sanabassarus the ruler, ¹⁸with the commandment that he should carry away the same vessels, and put them in the temple at Jerusalem; and that the temple of the Lord should be built in that place. ¹⁹Then the same Sanabassarus, being come hither, laid the foundations of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem; and from that time to this being still a building, it is not yet finished. ²⁰Now therefore, if it seem good unto the king, let search be made among the records of king Cyrus: ²¹and if it be found that the building of the house of the Lord at Jerusalem hath been done with the consent of king Cyrus, and if our lord the king be so minded, let him signify unto us thereof.

²²Then commanded king Darius to seek among the records at Babylon: and so at Ekbatana the palace, which is in the country of Media, there was found a roll wherein these things were recorded: ²³In the first year of the reign of Cyrus, king Cyrus commanded that the house of the Lord should be built again, where they do sacrifice with continual fire: ²⁴whose height shall be sixty cubits, and the breadth sixty cubits, with three rows of hewn stones, and one row of new wood of that country; and the expenses thereof to be given out of the house of king Cyrus: ²⁵and that the holy vessels of the house of the Lord, both of gold and silver, that Nebuchadnezzar took out of the house at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, should be restored to the house at Jerusalem, and be set in the place where they were before. ²⁶And also commanded he that Sisinnes the governor of Syria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, and their companions, and those which were appointed rulers in Syria and Phoenicia, should be careful to stay away from the place, but suffer Zerubbabel the servant of the Lord, and governor of Judea, and the elders of the Jews, to build the house of the Lord in that place. ²⁷I have commanded also to have it built up whole again; and that they look diligently to help those that be of the captivity of the Jews, till the house of the Lord be finished: ²⁸and out of the tribute of Coelesyria and Phoenicia a portion carefully to be given these men for the sacrifice of the Lord, that is, to Zerubbabel the governor, for calves, and rams, and lambs; ²⁹and also corn, salt, wine, and oil, and that continually every year without further question, according as the priests that be in Jerusalem shall signify to be daily spent: ³⁰that offerings may be made to the Most High God for the king and for his children, and that they may pray for their lives. ³¹And he commanded that whosoever should transgress, yea, or make light of any thing herein written, out of his own house should a tree be taken, and he thereon hanged, and all his goods seized for the king. ³²The Lord therefore, Whose name is there called upon, utterly destroy every king and nation, that stretcheth out his hand to hinder or endamage that house of the Lord in Jerusalem. ³³I Darius the king have ordained that according unto these things it be done with diligence.

CHAPTER 7

Then Sisinnus the governor of Coelestria and Phoenicia, and Sathrabuzanes, with their companions, following the commandments of king Darius, ²did very carefully oversee the holy works, assisting the elders of the Jews and governors of the temple. ³And so the holy works prospered, when Haggai and Zechariah the prophets prophesied. ⁴And they finished these things by the commandment of the Lord God of Israel; and with the consent of Cyrus, Darius, and Artaxerxes, kings of Persia, ⁵the holy house was finished in the three and twentieth day of the month Adar, in the sixth year of king Darius. ⁶And the sons of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and others that were of the captivity, that were added unto them, did according to the things written in the book of Moses. ⁷And to the dedication of the temple of the Lord they offered an hundred calves, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; ⁸and twelve goats for the sin of all Israel, according to the number of the chief of the tribes of Israel. ⁹The priests also and the Levites stood arrayed in their vestments, according to their kindreds, in the service of the Lord God of Israel, according to the book of Moses, and the porters at every gate. ¹⁰And the sons of Israel that were of the captivity held the passover the fourteenth day of the first month, after that the priests and the Levites were sanctified, ¹¹together with all the children of the captivity; for they were sanctified, because the Levites were all sanctified together. ¹²And so they offered the passover for all them of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. ¹³And the sons of Israel that came out of the captivity did eat, even all they that had separated themselves from the abominations of the people of the land, and sought the Lord. ¹⁴And they kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days, making merry before the Lord, ¹⁵for that He had turned the counsel of the king of Assyria toward them, to strengthen their hands in the works of the Lord God of Israel.

CHAPTER 8

And after these things, when Artaxerxes the king of the Persians reigned, came Ezra the son of Azariah, the son of Ezeriah, the son of Hilkiah, the son of Shallum, ²the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, the son of Amariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest. ³This Ezra went up from Babylon, as a scribe, being very ready in the law of Moses, that was given by the Lord God of Israel. ⁴And the king did him honour: for he found grace in his sight in all his requests. ⁵There went up with him also certain of the sons of Israel, of the priests, of the Levites, of the holy singers, porters, and ministers of the temple, unto Jerusalem, ⁶in the seventh year of the reign of Artaxerxes, in the fifth month, this was the king's seventh year; for they went from Babylon in the first day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem, according to the prosperous journey which the Lord gave to him. ⁷For Ezra had very great skill, so that he omitted nothing of the law and commandments of the Lord, but taught all Israel the ordinances and judgments.

⁸Now the copy of the commission, which was written from Artaxerxes the king, and came to Ezra the priest and reader of the law of the Lord, is that which followeth: ⁹King Artaxerxes unto Ezra the priest and reader of the law of the Lord sendeth greeting. ¹⁰Having determined to deal graciously, I have given order, that such of the nation of the Jews, and of the priests and Levites, being within our realm, as are willing and desirous, should go with thee to Jerusalem. ¹¹As many therefore as have a mind thereunto, let them depart with thee, as it hath seemed good both to me and to my seven friends the counsellors; ¹²that they may look into the affairs of Judah and Jerusalem, agreeably to that which is in the law of the Lord; ¹³and carry the gifts unto the Lord of Israel to Jerusalem, which I and my friends have vowed, and all the gold and silver that in the country of Babylon can be found, to the Lord in Jerusalem, with that also which is given of the people for the temple of the Lord their God in Jerusalem, ¹⁴and that silver and gold may be collected for calves, rams, and lambs, and things thereunto appertaining; ¹⁵to the end that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord upon the altar of the Lord their God, which is in Jerusalem. ¹⁶And whatsoever thou and thy brethren will do with the silver and gold, that do, according to the will of thy God. ¹⁷And the holy vessels of the Lord, which are given thee for the use of the temple of thy God, which is in Jerusalem, thou shalt set before thy God in Jerusalem. ¹⁸And whatsoever thing else thou shalt remember for the use of the temple of thy God, thou shalt give it out of the king's treasury. ¹⁹And I king Artaxerxes have also commanded the keepers of the treasures in Syria and Phoenicia, that whatsoever Ezra the priest and reader of the law of the most high God shall send for, they should give it him with speed, to the sum of an hundred talents of silver, ²⁰likewise also of wheat unto an hundred cors, and an hundred pieces of wine, ²¹and other things in abundance. Let all things be performed after the law of God diligently unto the most high God, that wrath come not upon the kingdom of the king and his sons. ²²I command you also, that ye require no tax, nor any other imposition, of any of the priests, or Levites, or holy singers, or porters, or ministers of the temple, or of any that have doings in this temple, and that man have authority to impose any thing upon them. ²³And thou, Ezra, according to the wisdom of God ordain judges and justices, that they may judge in all Syria and Phenice all those that know the law of thy God; and those that know it not thou shalt teach. ²⁴And whosoever shall transgress the law of thy God, and of the king, shall be punished diligently, whether it be by death, or other punishment, by penalty of money, or by imprisonment.

²⁵Then said Ezra the scribe, Blessed be the only God of thy fathers, who hath put these things into the heart of the king, to glorify His house that is in Jerusalem: ²⁶and hath honoured me in the sight of the king, and his counsellors, and all his friends and nobles. ²⁷Therefore was I encouraged by the help of the Lord my God, and gathered together men of Israel to go up with me.

²⁸And these are the chief according to their families and several dignities, that went up with me from Babylon in the reign of king Artaxerxes: ²⁹of the sons of Phinehas, Gershom: of the sons of Ithamar, Gamael: of the sons of David, Hattush the son of Sechenias: ³⁰of the sons of Parosh, Zechariah; and with him were counted an hundred and fifty men: ³¹of the sons of Pahath-moab, Eliehoenai, the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred men: ³²of the sons of Zattu, Secheniah the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred men: of the sons of Adin, Obed the son of Jonathan, and with him two hundred and fifty men: ³³of the sons of Elam, Josiah son of Gotholiah, and with him seventy men: ³⁴of the sons of Shaphatiah, Zarahiah son of Michael, and with him threescore and ten men: ³⁵of the sons of Joab, Obadiah son of Jezelous, and with him two hundred and twelve men: ³⁶of the sons of Bani, Shelomith son of Josiphiah, and with him an hundred and threescore men: ³⁷of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight men: ³⁸of the sons of Azag, Johanan son of Hakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten men: ³⁹of the sons of Adonikam the last, and these are the names of them, Eliphalat, son of Jeuel, and Shemaiah, and with them seventy men: ⁴⁰of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai the son of Istalcurus, and with him seventy men.

⁴¹And these I gathered together to the river called Theras, where we pitched our tents three days: and then I surveyed them. ⁴²But when I found there none of the priests and Levites, ⁴³then sent I unto Eleazar, and Iduel, and Maheah, and Maasmas, ⁴⁴and Elnathan, and Samaiah, and Jarib, and Nathan, Ennatan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, principal men and learned. ⁴⁵And I bade them that they should go to unto Iddo the captain, who was in the place of the treasury: and commanded them that they should speak unto Iddo, and to his brethren, and to the treasurers in that place, to send us such men as might execute the priests' office in the house of the Lord. ⁴⁶And by the mighty hand of our Lord they brought unto us skilful men of the sons of Mahli the son of Levi, the son of Israel, Sherebiah, and his sons, and his brethren, who were eighteen. ⁴⁷And Asebiah, and Annunus, and Hosaiiah his brother, of the sons of Chanounaius, and their sons, were twenty men. ⁴⁸And of the servants of the temple whom David had ordained, and the principal men for the service of the Levites, to wit, the servants of the temple, two hundred and twenty, the catalogue of whose names were shewed. ⁴⁹And there I vowed a fast unto the young men before our Lord, ⁵⁰to desire of Him a prosperous journey both for us and them that were with us, for our children, and for the cattle: ⁵¹for I was ashamed to ask the king footmen, and horsemen, and conduct for safeguard against our adversaries. ⁵²For we had said unto the king, that the power of the Lord our God should be with them that seek Him, to support them in all ways. ⁵³And again we besought the Lord as touching these things, and found Him favourable unto us. ⁵⁴Then I separated twelve of chief leaders of the priests, Serebiah, and Asabiah, and ten men of their brethren with them: ⁵⁵and I weighed them the gold, and the silver, and the holy vessels of the house of our Lord, which the king, and his council, and the princes, and all Israel, had given. ⁵⁶And when I had weighed it, I delivered unto them six hundred and sixty talents of silver, and silver vessels of an hundred talents, and an hundred talents of gold, and twenty golden vessels, and twelve vessels of brass, even of fine brass, glittering like gold. ⁵⁷And I said unto them, Both ye are holy unto the Lord, and the vessels are holy, and the gold and the silver is a vow unto the Lord, the Lord of our fathers. ⁵⁸Watch ye, and keep them till ye deliver them to the chief of the priests and Levites, and to the principal men of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, into the chambers of the house of our God. ⁵⁹So the priests and the Levites, who had received the silver and the gold and the vessels, brought them unto Jerusalem, into the temple of the Lord.

⁶⁰And from the river Theras we departed the twelfth day of the first month, and came to Jerusalem by the mighty hand of our Lord, which was with us: and from the beginning of our journey the Lord delivered us from every enemy, and so we came to Jerusalem. ⁶¹And when we had been there three days, the gold and the silver that was weighed was delivered in the house of our Lord on the fourth day unto Marmuth the priest the son of Uriah; ⁶²and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas, and with them was Josabad the son of Joshua and Moeth the son of Sabannus, Levites: all was delivered them by number and weight; and all the weight of them was written up the same hour. ⁶³Moreover they that were come out of the captivity offered sacrifice unto the Lord God of Israel, even twelve calves for all Israel, fourscore and sixteen rams, threescore and twelve lambs, goats for a peace offering, twelve; all of them a sacrifice to the Lord. ⁶⁴And they delivered the king's commandments unto the king's stewards, and to the governors of Coelesyria and Phoenicia; and they honoured the people and the temple of the Lord.

⁶⁵Now when these things were done, the rulers came unto me, and said, ⁶⁶The nation of Israel, the princes, the priests and Levites, have not put away from them the strange people of the land, nor their pollutions from the nations, to wit, the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and the Moabites, Egyptians and Edomites. ⁶⁷For both they and their sons have married with their daughters, and the holy seed is mixed with the strange people of the land; and from the beginning of this matter the rulers and the great men have been partakers of this iniquity. ⁶⁸And as soon as I had heard these things, I rent my clothes, and the holy garment, and pulled off the hair from off my head and beard, and sat me down sad and very heavy. ⁶⁹So all they that were then moved at the word of the Lord God of Israel assembled unto me, whilst I mourned for the iniquity: but I sat still full of heaviness until the evening sacrifice. ⁷⁰Then rising up from the fast with my clothes and the holy garment rent, and bowing my knees, and stretching forth my hands unto the Lord, I said, ⁷¹O Lord, I am confounded and ashamed before Thy face; ⁷²for our sins are multiplied above our heads, and our ignorances have reached up unto heaven. ⁷³For ever since the time of our fathers we have been and are in great sin, even unto this day. ⁷⁴And for our sins and our fathers' we with our brethren and our kings and priests were given up unto the kings of the earth, to the sword, and to captivity, and for a prey with shame, unto this day. ⁷⁵And now in some measure hath mercy been shewed unto us from thee, O Lord, that there should be left us a root and a name in the place of Thy sanctuary; and to discover unto us a light in the house of the Lord our God, and to give us food in the time of our servitude. ⁷⁶Yea, when we were in bondage we were not forsaken of our Lord; ⁷⁷but he made us favoured before the kings of Persia, so that they gave us food; ⁷⁸yea, and honoured the temple of the our Lord, and raised up the desolate Zion, that they have given us a sure abiding in Judah and Jerusalem. ⁷⁹And now, O Lord, what shall we say, having these things? for we have transgressed Thy commandments, which Thou gavest by the hand of Thy servants the prophets, saying, ⁸⁰That the land, which ye enter into to possess as an heritage, is a land polluted with the pollutions of the strangers of the land, and they have filled it with their uncleanness. ⁸¹Therefore now shall ye not join your daughters unto their sons, neither shall ye take their daughters unto your sons. ⁸²Moreover ye shall never seek to have peace with them, that ye may be strong, and eat the good things of the land, and that ye may leave the inheritance of the land unto your children for evermore. ⁸³And all that is befallen is done unto us for our wicked works and great sins: for Thou, O Lord, didst make our sins light, ⁸⁴and didst give us such a root: but we have turned back again to transgress Thy law, and to mingle ourselves with the nations of the land. ⁸⁵Mightest Thou not be angry with us to destroy us, till Thou hadst left us neither root, seed, nor shame? ⁸⁶O Lord of Israel, Thou art true: for we are left a root this day. ⁸⁷Behold, now are we before Thee in our iniquities, for we cannot stand any longer by reason of these things before Thee.

⁸⁸And as Ezra in his prayer made his confession, weeping, and lying flat upon the ground before the temple, there gathered unto him from Jerusalem a very great multitude of men and women and children: for there was great weeping among the multitude. ⁸⁹Then Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Israel, called out, and said, O Ezra, we have sinned against the Lord God, we have married strange women of the nations of the land, and now is all Israel aloft. ⁹⁰Let us make an oath to the Lord, that we will put away all our wives, which we have taken of the nations, with their children, like as thou hast decreed, and as many as do obey the law of the Lord. ⁹¹Arise, and put in execution: for to thee doth this matter appertain, and we will be with thee: do valiantly. ⁹²So Ezra arose, and took an oath of the chief of the priests and Levites of all Israel to do after these things; and so they sware.

CHAPTER 9

Then Ezra rising from the court of the temple went to the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib, ²and remained there, and did eat no meat nor drink water, mourning for the great iniquities of the multitude. ³And there was a proclamation in all Judah and Jerusalem to all them that were of the captivity, that they should be gathered together at Jerusalem: ⁴and that whosoever met not there within two or three days, according as the elders that bare rule appointed, their cattle should be seized to the use of the temple, and himself cast out from them that were of the captivity. ⁵And in three days were all they of the tribe of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem the twentieth day of the month. ⁶And all the multitude sat in the broad court of the temple, trembling because of the present foul weather. ⁷So Ezra arose up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed the law in marrying strange wives, thereby to increase the sins of Israel. ⁸And now by confessing give glory unto the Lord God of our fathers, ⁹and do His will, and separate yourselves from the nations of the land, and from the strange women. ¹⁰Then cried the whole multitude, and said with a loud voice, Like as thou hast spoken, so will we do. ¹¹But forasmuch as the people are many, and it is foul weather, so that we cannot stand without, and this is not a work of a day or two, seeing our sin in these things is spread far: ¹²therefore let the rulers of the multitude stay, and let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come at the time appointed, ¹³and with them the rulers and judges of every place, till we turn away the wrath of the Lord from us for this matter. ¹⁴Then Jonathan the son of Azahel and Jehziah the son of Thokanos accordingly took this matter upon them: and Meshullam and Levi and Shabbethai helped them. ¹⁵And they that were of the captivity did according to all these things. ¹⁶And Ezra the priest chose unto him the principal men of their families, all by name: and in the first day of the tenth month they sat together to examine the matter. ¹⁷So their cause that held strange wives was brought to an end in the first day of the first month. ¹⁸And of the priests that were come together, and had strange wives, there were found; ¹⁹of the sons of Joshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maseiah, and Eliazar, and Jarib, and Jodan. ²⁰And they gave their hands to put away their wives, and to offer rams to make reconciliation for their errors. ²¹And of the sons of Immer: Ananias, and Zebadiah, and Manes, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Azariah. ²²And of the sons of Pashur; Elionai, Maasiah, Ishmael, and Nathanael, and Okideilus, and Salthas. ²³And of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kolaiah, who was called Kalitah, and Pethaiah, and Judah, and Jonah. ²⁴Of the holy singers: Eliashib, Bacchurus. ²⁵Of the porters; Shallum, and Tolbanes. ²⁶Of them of Israel, of the sons of Phorus; Jermas, and Izziah, and Melchiah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Asibias, and Benaiah. ²⁷Of the sons of Elan; Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jezrielus, and Obadiah, and Jeremoth, and Elijah. ²⁸And of the sons of Zamoth; Eliadas, Eliasimus, Othoniah, Jeremoth, and Sabathus, and Zerdaiah. ²⁹Of the sons of Bebai; Johannes, and Ananias, and Zabdus, and Emathis. ³⁰Of the sons of Mani; Olamus, Mamuchus, Jedaiah, Jashub, Asaeilus, and Jeremoth. ³¹And of the sons of Addi; Naathus, and Moosiah, Lacunus, and Naidus, Mattaniah, and Sestheel, Balnouas, and Manasseh. ³²And of the sons of Annan; Elionas, and Asaias, and Melchias, and Sabbaias, and Simon Chosamaias. ³³And of the sons of Asam; Maltanias, and Mattathias, and Zabannaias, Eliphalat, and Manasseh, and Shimei. ³⁴And of the sons of Bahni; Jeremiah, Mamdias, Maerus, Joel, Mamdai, and Paedias, and Vaniah, Carabasian, and Eliasibas, and Mamnitainimas, Eliasis, Bannous, Elialis, Shomeis, Shelemiah, Nethaniah: and of the sons of Ezora; Shessis, Esriel, Azeilas, Samatus, Zambris, Joseph. ³⁵And of the sons of Noomah; Mazitias, Zabadias, Iddo, Joel, Benaiah. ³⁶All these had taken strange wives, and they put them away with their children.

³⁷And the priests and the Levites, and they that were of Israel, dwelt in Jerusalem, and in the country, in the first day of the seventh month: so the sons of Israel were in their habitations. ³⁸And the whole multitude came together with one accord into the broad place of the holy porch toward the east: ³⁹and they spake unto Ezra the priest and reader, that he would bring the law of Moses, that was given of the Lord God of Israel. ⁴⁰So Ezra the chief priest brought the law to the whole multitude from man to woman, and to all the priests, to hear the law in the first day of the seventh month. ⁴¹And he read in the broad court before the holy porch from morning unto midday, before both men and women; and all the multitude gave heed unto the law. ⁴²And Ezra the priest and reader of the law stood up upon a pulpit of wood which was made for that purpose. ⁴³And there stood up by him Mattathias, Shammous, Ananias, Azariah, Uriah, Hezekiah, Baalsamus, upon the right hand: ⁴⁴and upon the left hand Pedaiah, and Mishael, Melchiah, Lothasubus, Nabariah, Zechariah. ⁴⁵Then took Ezra the book of the law before the multitude: for he sat honourably in the first place in the sight of them all. ⁴⁶And when he opened up the law, they stood all straight up. So Ezra blessed the Lord God Most High, the God of hosts, Almighty. ⁴⁷And all the host answered, Amen; and lifting up their hands they fell to the ground, and worshipped the Lord. ⁴⁸Also Jeshua, Anniuth, Sarabiah, Jadinus, Jakoubas, Sabbateas, Autias, Maiannas, and Kalitas, Azariah, and Jozabdas, and Ananias, Pelaiiah, the Levites, taught the law of the Lord, and read the law of the Lord to the multitude, making them withal to understand it. ⁴⁹Then spake Attarates unto Ezra the chief priest and reader, and to the Levites that taught the multitude, even to all, saying, ⁵⁰This day is holy unto the Lord; (for they all wept when they heard the law:) ⁵¹go then, and eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send part to them that have nothing: ⁵²for this day is holy unto the Lord: and be not sorrowful; for the Lord will bring you to honour. ⁵³So the Levites published all things to the people, saying, This day is holy to the Lord: be not sorrowful. ⁵⁴Then went they their way, every one to eat and drink and make merry, and to give part to them that had nothing, and to make great cheer; because they understood the words wherein they were instructed, and for the which they had been assembled.
